MASTER OF ARTS IN ENGLISH

PROGRAMMES LEADING TO THE M.A. IN ENGLISH LITERATURE (THESIS AND NON-THESIS OPTIONS ARE OFFERED) OR AN INNOVATIVE, INTEGRATED M.A. IN LITERATURE AND CREATIVE WRITING.

Examples of some recent courses offered are: New Narrative Theories; American Gothic; Bloomsbury; T.S. Eliot and His Invention of the Age of Eliot; Irish Nationalism in the Age of Yeats and Joyce; Women, Poetry, Patronage in 17th Century Literature; Byron and Wilde: Symbolic Relations; Romantic Poetic Theory and Practice; Shakespeare's Plays and Changing Critical Practice; Beckett's Fiction; Studies in Chaucer; The Gothic Novel; Body, Landscape and Language in Contemporary Canadian Poetry; Medieval Romance; Ezra Pound and the Ulysses Theme; Victorianism; Classical and Humanist Influences on Renaissance Literature; Deconstruction and Criticism; The Satire of Pope and Swift; Postcolonial Autobiographies.

For more information on these programmes and for application forms and deadlines for applying for admission or for scholarships and assistantships, please write to: Professor Marcie Frank, Graduate Programme Director or Professor G. David Sheps, Chair Department of English / LB-501 1455 de Maisonneuve Blvd. W. Montréal, Qc, Canada H3G 1M8 Tel: (514) 848-2344/2340 Fax: (514) 848-4501 E-mail: brownse@vax2.concordia.ca Http://artsci-ccwin.concordia.ca/English/engl.html

MONTRÉAL

Concordia UNIVERSITY

QUÉBEC